Mackmen Open Four-game Series Starting Tuesday. Then Come Red Sox.

OTHER SPORTING GOSSIP

adge Hitting in Hard Luck-Henri Rondeau Proving His Worth with Stick.

Seven games of ball played during the past week by the Griffmen resulted in three victories and four defeats, and to-day the Washington club stands sixth in the American League pennant race. Two games won out of four from Bos-the American League pennant race.

Two games won out of four from Boston in the Hub was an encouraging start, but upon the return home two out of three were lost to the Yankees, with one more game remaining of the present series which will be staged tomorrow.

Lack played a prominent factor in both the games lost here to the Yanks. Not even the most pessimistic fan could rruthfully say that the Griffmen were outclassed, all of which indicates that better things are coming.

Developments the past six days have shown that Griffith made no mistake in recalling Henrif Rondeau from Minneapolia last fall, for Rondeau has already impressed the critics as being a sure enough clean-up hitter.

Joe Judge has been a disappointment, for he is not hitting his weight, but the opposing pitchers are not fooling him a whole lot, and he is sure to get started going very soon.

With Rondeau and Judge doing what was expected of them, and the pitchers continuing to show the class which has characterized their work the past week, the Nationala are going to be heard from before many days have elapsed.

Connie Mack's Athletics come here for a series of four games starting Tuesday.

WASHINGTON SWIMMERS DIVIDE WITH DOYLE

Washington Swimming Club and Doyle's Athletic Club divided honors last night in the annual South Atlantic Association swimming championships in the Baltimore Athletic Club tank, each scoring 32 points. Inasmuch as there is no rule in the athletic union governing these, each club will receive a troub.

Neck and Neck Fight Which Kept Spectators on Edge Easily Best of Tourney.

It took a handlesp of two goals and at least one of Harry Easts two fouls to win the Post polo cup for the West-moreland team in yesterday's match with moreland team in yesterday's match with the Pine Tree Club of Alken. The final acore, after eight periods of as hard playing as has been seen in the present tournament, was 8 -4 to 5, in favor of the Westmoreland quartet.

In a sough field, which the hoofs of the horses ploughed up within the first two periods, so that a smooth rolling ball was a virtual impossibility, a large gallery witnessed series of spectacular racing plays, hard rides, and expert horsemanship.
